

Proof of GED Test Administration

“ A chief examiner must give the test at least four times each year, as required by the GED Testing Service. The dates the chief examiner administers the test must be written in the inventory log, and signed off by the institutional chief administrator.” Kansas Board of Regents: Kansas GED Policy Manual (Revised August 1, 2008)

During the test administration this month _____ chief examiner, administered the following tests:

Test	Date
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

During the test administration this month _____, examiner, administered the following tests:

Test	Date
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Chief Examiner

Examiner

Institution

Institution

Institutional Chief Administrator

Date

Institution