

Content Requirements for Qualified Admission

Current Social Issues Courses

Each Qualified Admission Current Social Issues course shall include instruction in all of the following topics:

- I.. Theoretical perspectives on social problems;
- II. Research methods in social problems;
- III. Cross-cultural perspectives in politico-economic problems;
- IV. Social problems related to social inequities;
- V. Social problems related to social institutions;
- VI. Social problems related to social change; and
- VII. Other related topics as approved in advance by the Chief Executive Officer of the Board of Regents or the Chief Executive Officer's designee.