

Content Requirements for Qualified Admission

United States Government Courses

Each Qualified Admission United States government course shall meet the Curricular Standards for High School for Civics-Government established by the Kansas State Board of Education on pages 225 through 231 in the “Kansas Curricular Standards for History and Government; Economics and Geography” as approved in December 2004, revised on August 22, 2005, and hereby adopted by reference.