Was collaboration with similar programs pursued: Please explain the collaboration attempt or rationale for why collaboration was not a viable option?

WSU Tech created the Digital Marketing program proposal after reviewing offerings in the state of Kansas and seeking involvement from Wichita area business and industry representatives. The WSU Tech proposed program incorporates the best practices for technical instruction and responds to the specific requests of business and industry concerning training and credentialing desired for new hires in the field.

The WSU Tech/Wichita State University (WSU) affiliation combined with the development of WSU's newest degree option (Bachelors of Applied Sciences in Workforce Leadership and Applied Learning) made WSU the obvious partnership choice for this proposed program. The current partnership opportunities are in the area of instructional technologies, curriculum and transferability. WSU Tech will continue to pursue additional partnership opportunities with its affiliated institution.

Instructional Technologies

The proposed Digital Marketing Program housed at WSU South is part of the WUS Tech Business Department. This location will allow the proposed program to leverage the expertise and multimedia technologies currently found at the WSU Shocker Studios, also housed at WSU South. Students in the core courses of the Digital Marketing program will have the opportunity to utilize the state of the art multimedia equipment located at the Shocker Studios.

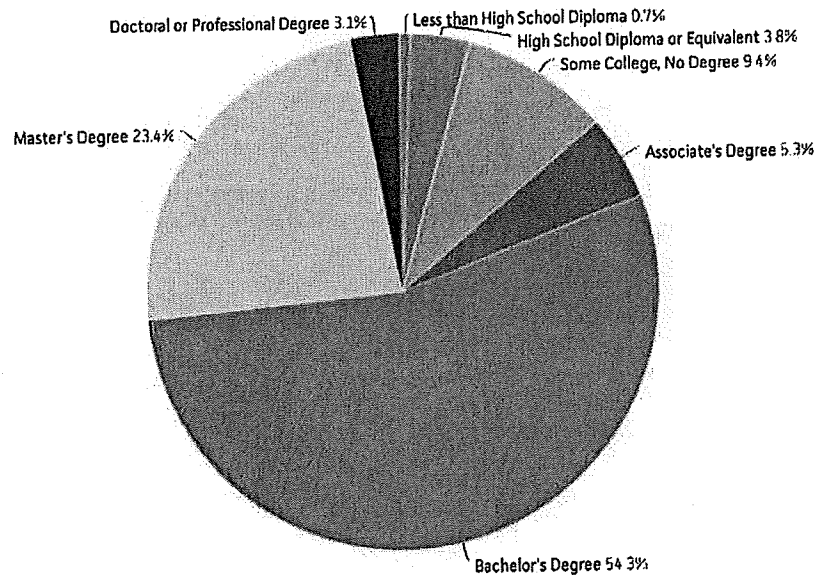

Curriculum

WSU provided WSU tech with the curriculum to create two of the proposed courses (DMK 110 and 120. Leadership in the Digital Marketing program is working with Faculty from WSU Media Arts program to ensure WSU faculty teach these transferable courses.

Transferability

The education profile from JobsEQ supports the decision to collaborate with WSU ensuring students have the opportunity to further their degree to the BA level. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistic data utilized by JobsEQ there is opportunity for graduates with associate degree and below to directly enter the workforce. The data also indicates the majority of graduates will pursue a Bachelor's degree. The partnership between WSU and WSU Tech provides graduates of the proposed program a unique opportunity in this area. Graduates of the WSU Tech Digital Marketing program will have the ability to seamlessly transfer a total of 43 credits to Wichita State University. These credits will apply directly to the new Bachelors of Applied Sciences in Workforce Leadership and Applied Learning. This includes 27 credits from core technical courses, 4 credits from required technical internships and 12 general education credits.

Educational Attainment Profile, Age 25+

In light of the WSU/WSU Tech affiliation and the depth of the partnership created for this proposed Digital Media program WSU Tech made the decision to not seek additional partnerships.

Program Review and Assessment

Describe the institution's program review cycle.

The Digital Marketing program will go through the same program review and assessment processes that are used for all other programs throughout the college. The program outcomes and competencies are formulated into the World Wide Instructional Design (WIDS) system. Students will be regularly evaluated throughout the program for mastery of knowledge and technical skills. Assessment tools include written exams, demonstrations, projects, and other evaluation techniques. They will also be contacted to complete the WSU TECH Follow-up Study that rates various aspects of the program. This process is completed by the faculty. Data from WIDS is compiled and utilized by the programs to identify their strengths and challenges. They are also used to verify student learning and plan for future instructional improvements. Faculty will then make curricular revisions as indicated by data. In the case of a non-aligned program, this would include changes to outcomes, competencies, content, instruction, resources, and other curricular activities. Supplemental data is also collected through student course and program evaluations, student satisfaction surveys, student and employer assessment surveys, and graduate placement statistics.

A program Industry Advocate Team (IAT) will annually review program content, admission requirements, equipment, program outcomes, objectives, and competencies, and receive information regarding program performance yearly. Information from these meetings will guide faculty regarding industry needs and provide assurance that the knowledge and skills they are teaching is what is needed by industry. In addition, any state aligned curriculum approved by KBOR will be implemented.

Each program conducts a formal review to ensure that its objectives and competencies are being achieved, and that there is a level of accountability in place. These reviews take place on a three cycle. The program review takes into account all of the information produced about the program and brings it together in one evaluation. The program review allows programs and departments to identify their strengths, pinpoint areas for improvement, and discuss other resources that impact their area. The structure of program review is very much like a program self-study. Each program review is made up of six major components: program information, curriculum, advisory committee, resources, program outcomes, and summary. For each area, faculty are required to describe or provide feedback on specific aspects, providing data and/or support documentation when available. Faculty complete the program review documentation and submit it to the appropriate Dean for review. After any necessary adjustments are completed the program review is submitted to the Program Review Committee which is made up of both Academic Vice Presidents and the Dean of Academic Services. After reviewing the documentation the Program Review Committee meets with the program leadership defines a course of action that they would like to take to improve the program based on recommendations within the program review, from the Vice President and the rest of the faculty.

Sheree Utash, President
WSU Tech

Wichita, KS 67226

Dear President Utash,

Sullivan Higdon & Sink (SHS) is an Ad Age Agency of the Year and Business Marketing Agency of the Year, and our clients span the globe. Our roots, however, are in Wichita and we remain committed to Wichita and the region. And with more than 150 employees between our Wichita and Kansas City offices, we are constantly looking for fresh, talented individuals to Be Remarkable with us. Furthermore, it is our practice to prioritize and hire candidates with education and/or work experience in the digital arts and sciences.

It is for these reasons and more we support Wichita State University Tech's Digital Marketing program. We support this program by having a senior employee serving on the Industry Advocate Team (that's me!) and advising on curriculum. And as we are able, we commit to providing job descriptions and hiring requirement information to the program; hosting job shadow students; and speaking to classes. It will also go a long way in the process of deciding whom to interview for internship and full-time positions if the candidate has this program on his/her resume.

Thank you for the opportunity to lend our support to this important program. We appreciate WSU Tech's commitment to developing employer-informed programs and affirm your mission of training people for high-wage, high-demand jobs.

GO SHOX!
