Introduction to Social Work - SOC 1020 CORE OUTCOMES

Course Effective Date: Summer 2016

Outcome Approval Date: Fall 2015

Next Outcome Review Date: Fall 2020

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Define & describe social work - what it is, what it does, and with whom, in what areas of human functioning, in what context, and with what focus.
- Compare and contrast social work from other helping professions (e.g. psychology, applied sociology, psychiatry, etc.); professional social work from volunteer helping; profession from occupation; and social service organizations from other organizations.
- Identify and critically examine the philosophical and historical roots of social work and social welfare.
- Identify common fields of generalist practice at the various levels of social work interventions (e.g. individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities).
- Identify the social work professional's core values and ethical principles and compare and contrast with the individual student's values and those values held in society (NASW Code of Ethics)
- Identify core theories and research that guide social work and social welfare policies, frameworks, perspectives, and generalist practice methods.
- Identify and examine social and economic justice issues addressed by the social work and social welfare profession, especially those related to poverty, inequality, racism, sexism, homophobia, ageism, and other forms of oppression at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels.
