Introduction to Sociology - SOC1010 CORE OUTCOMES

Course Effective Date: Fall 2012

Outcome Approval Date: Fall 2017

Next Outcome Review Date: Fall 2022

Upon completion of the above listed course, students will be able to do the following:

1. Define and describe the role of social institutions in contemporary societies (eg. Family, State, Economy, Religion, Education, Media, Healthcare).
2. Differentiate and apply the main ideas of Functionalism, Conflict/Critical theory, and Symbolic Interactionism.
3. Give an example of how systems of social stratification (e.g. class, race and ethnicity, gender, sexuality, age) organize the distribution of social advantages and disadvantages.
4. Describe the relationship between social structure and individual behavior.
5. Distinguish between qualitative and quantitative approaches to conducting sociological research.
6. Define the major components of culture, including the role of socialization, social norms and deviance.
7. Give an example of the social causes and consequences of a major social change (e.g. globalization, environment, technology, population shifts, social movements).
8. Critically examine common assumptions about how society works using the sociological imagination.
